LET'S PRAY LIKE IT MATTERS

The first Sunday of each month we gather for a prayer and praise service at 5:30pm in the sanctuary. David Platt says, "One of our greatest needs today - if not our greatest need - is extraordinary prayer for the fullness of God's presence among His people. Too often we fall into a self sufficient mentality and kill our faith. Trust in the Lord and pray."

Note From Pastor Nathan

Over the past week, Mike and I, have spent time in worship, prayer, and hearing God's word expounded at The Gospel Coalition's 2023 Conference in Indianapolis. We are grateful for the time away for this refreshing and being poured into. The focus of this conference was on the Book of Exodus and titled Hope in the Wilderness. I want to give some key take aways from the conference. The conference opened with John Piper expounding upon the very name of God, YHWH. How great is His name. For over 6,800 times in scripture, where we read LORD it was written YHWH, we are told His name is YHWH. He defined for us who God is as YHWH. And how we are called to be in worship and awe of our God. And even when we sing or say Hallelujah- we hear God's name in the Jah, Hallelu-Jah!

Then H.B. Charles Jr. Led us through God's sacrifice in the wilderness that teaches four lessons, sovereignty, sin, substitution, and sanctification. He pointed out the sacrifice of Passover points to the greater and best sacrifice of Jesus.

Kenneth Mbugua, from Nairobi, discussed the Israelites rescue from Pharoah. In doing so he reminds us we are much like the Israelites at the Red Sea, our eyes are on the enemy coming to destroy us and we are afraid. Yet God says, I will do everything, He will fight the battle, and that we are to be silent, that we do nothing. We don't get to save ourselves!

JD Greer points us to the 10 Commandments, not as a means of our salvation but reminding us they were given to Israel AFTER God saved them. That our obedience is the right response to God's grace. Andrew Wilson spoke on Idols. He told us of the Golden Calf that was fashioned out of earrings. And earring god that could not hear its people, unable to hear, speak, act. Shiny on the outside and empty on the inside. That we shape our idols then our idols shape us. We become like what we worship. But if we turn away from idols and worship God, the good news is we become like what we worship. But the best news is that the one we worship has become like us. The golden calf is crushed and destroyed in God's anger, and on the cross Jesus is crushed and destroyed because he knew no sin became our sin upon the cross. On the day 3,000 people died because of God's wrath over the golden calf but on Pentecost 3,000 men were saved by God's grace and mercy.

And in the end David Platt encouraged us and called us deeper into prayer. That we are the dwelling place for God. That he has tabernacled in us. That we get the very presence of God with us every where we go. Psalm 27 says that we ask to dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of our lives. Yet maybe we need to ask ourselves is that what we want? If we don't want God and His presence in our lives today, then we won't have it for eternity. Our heart is to desire God and His presence to be with Him. When Israel was in the wilderness the fire of God rested on top of the mount when Moses was given the law. On Pentecost, the festival that celebrates the giving of the law, the fire rested on top of the heads of the people. God dwells in us, let us rejoice and fall on our face on the pavement in worship and prayer.

Overall, this conference was splendid time for Mike and I personally, and for us to grow closer together as co-laborers in Christ. We both pray that each of you may rejoice in the goodness of the Hope we have been given for the wilderness we travel.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Nathan Loewen

by Jack Garnett

I recently had the Great Honor of interviewing students from the MalaVai Washington Youth Foundation for their College Scholarship Program. It was refreshing to hear the Hopes and Dreams of these Young People. All the Students were Outstanding, but I was especially struck by this statement from a 17-year-old young man; "I don't want to be remembered for what I did yesterday."

WOW! I had to stop and think about what he said and it has stayed on my mind all Summer. I never got the opportunity to ask him about this statement or what he meant by it. However, I assume that he wants to Strive to Do Greater Things than he has accomplished in the past. Or could it be that this young man was ashamed of some of the things he had done in his past and wishes that no one will remember him for these undesirable acts. And that he will strive to be better in the future than he has been in the past.

This got me to thinking about my Life. Am I striving to do Greater Things than Yesterday? Or do I just wish that people will not remember my many Sins from yesterday and today? Then I remembered that as Christians we thank our GOD for sending His Only Son to Die on the Cross for our sins. I Prayed and our LORD sent me to these Bible Verses:

Romans 4: 7-8

"Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered."

"Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD will never count against him."

2 Corinthians 5: 17

Therefore, if anyone is in CHRIST, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

It sounds too simple to be true, but it is true. If we accept JESUS as our LORD and SAVIOR, GOD gives us the Gift of Salvation. If you have not asked JESUS into your life, please stop and Pray a Simple Prayer of Confession.

- 1. Confess that you are a sinner and need GOD'S help.
- 2. Turn from sin and repent.
- 3. Believe that JESUS died on the Cross for you and was raised from the dead so that you will have everlasting life in Heaven.
- 4. Ask JESUS to come into your life and save you and be LORD of your life.

If you have done this, ALWAYS REMEMBER:

I have accepted JESUS as my SAVIOR and as my LORD. I have been forgiven of all my sins. I am now completely acceptable in GOD'S presence.

YOUR FAITH HAS HEALED YOU!

JESUS HAS SAVED YOU!

PRAISE GOD!

Seniors on a Mission

by Allen Wankat

Senior volunteers from First Christian Church and Beaches Chapel will meet at First Christian Church at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, October 25. This group will rebuild the kit for the United Way Poverty Simulation. Lunch will be provided. Allen Wankat will not be available, and volunteers should call Rev. Howard McMinn at 904-285-1075. This is a very worthwhile project, aimed at building understanding of issues faced by individuals living at or slightly above the government's "poverty" level. These folks often need help understanding services that may be available to help families.

Seniors on a Mission also again is offering a Technology PopUp, at the Neptune Beach Senior Activity Center Jarboe Park, 407 Third Street, Neptune Beach, on Tuesday, October 10. This training is free, but appointments are necessary, and available at 10:00, 11:00, 12:30, 1:30, and 2:30. Each session will last 30 to 45 minutes, and will be held in SoAM's mobile training facility. Please contact Leslie Lyne at 904-749-0068 if interested. Church members who in the past attended an earlier PopUp session felt the program was very worthwhile, offering training on their personal phones and devices, both Apple and Android.

During September, several Seniors on a Mission church members participated in preparing a mailing at the First Coast Women's Services facility at Beach and Kernan.
